

Resident Rights & Responsibilities

ATL-F-006

Resident Rights

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ Dignity, privacy, respect, and freedom from abuse, neglect, retaliation, coercion, and financial exploitation | ☐ Nondiscrimination and equal housing opportunity as required by applicable law |
| ☐ A written occupancy/lease/residency agreement appropriate to the arrangement | ☐ Information about charges, refunds, rules, grievance procedures, and termination/move-out procedures |
| ☐ Request a reasonable accommodation related to disability; a specific Alexti form is not required to make a request | ☐ Reasonable privacy and lawful notice for non-emergency entry as applicable |
| ☐ Access to personal belongings and protection from unlawful lockouts or utility shutoffs | ☐ Report safety concerns, incidents, maintenance issues, or complaints without retaliation |
| ☐ Receive emergency and mandatory-reporting intervention when required | ☐ Know which organization provides housing and which organization provides any separate |

Resident Responsibilities

- | | |
|--|---|
| ☐ Provide accurate information reasonably needed for housing operations | ☐ Pay authorized charges when due or promptly communicate a payment problem |
| ☐ Follow lawful house rules and the signed occupancy agreement | ☐ Maintain personal areas and shared spaces in a reasonably clean and safe condition |
| ☐ Respect others' privacy, safety, property, and quiet enjoyment | ☐ Report emergencies, hazards, maintenance issues, and serious incidents promptly |
| ☐ Do not damage, misuse, or disable property or safety equipment | ☐ Participate in move-in/move-out inspections and return keys/access devices |

Questions / Concerns

Contact Alexti at (205) 645-3053 or support@alextitransitionalliving.com. Residents may use the Alexti grievance process and may also contact appropriate government or legal resources independently.

Resident Acknowledgment / Typed Name

Date

Staff Witness

Date